

Mobile Office Containers are great for ground level offices on any job site. They also can be equipped with storage space that includes shelving. In the office you will have fold-down drafting tables, file cabinets, electricity, air conditioning and shelving.

